TR Ham Radio operation moves to new quarters

by Margaret Emmetts and Jim Zigrosser

The TR Amateur Radio Club started its meetings the winter of 1976-77 with Ed Gearhard as its first president. Aside from giving ham radio fans a place to enjoy their hobby, the club planned to be able to use their skills for the benefit of the park in an emergency.

The first station was set up in the rear of the Hobby House. Over time equipment was added to improve the club's facilities. A gasoline powered generator was added to provide power for the radios and television sets as well as power for the First Responders to set up medical facilities to treat storm victims.

Radio facilities were enhanced and new antennas added to allow the signal to reach more distant areas. These facilities were put into use during a "no name storm" several years ago.

In March 2016 Ray Hill opened the cement block building to the rear of the Hobby House with a view to storing some equipment there.

Jim Zigrosser one of the TR hams happened to look in and said the building would make a great ham radio station.

TR hams Bill NR1FD Burke, Jim N2MJC Zigrosser and Jean W2JHM Zigrosser are enjoying their new home.

As a result, it was decided to move the club from the Hobby House location into the building to the rear. As a cement block building, this would make the location more secure during a hurricane or tornado.

The hams dismantled the old ham/com center saving the shelves to be reused. Equipment was stored in the homes of members who are here year-round.

The rebuild started in October 2016 and is an ongoing project. There are four operating positions. One is dedicated to the off-the-grid power that has a solar panel in place to charge the battery.

The shack is not finished but the members are pleased to be in a more secure building. While work is not yet complete, the radios are in place to keep communications open should an emergency occur.

Interesting fact: The Hobby House was the original farm house on what is now the TR property and the cement block building which the ham radio club is currently occupying was the original farm house bathroom with toilet and shower.

February Resident Forum is informative

by Margaret Emmetts

The meeting was called to order by Board President John Green with all Board members present with the exception of Jim Ball. Also present were Ray Hill and Donna Kerrick.

Board Treasurer Jim Weigand reviewed TR's financial status. Current figures indicate that expenses and cash flow are in line with the figures for the same time frame for the last several years.

John Green reminded residents that any problems with Bright House WiFi should be addressed by calling its 800 number which is available from the Main Office.

In January the Board sold 14 shares of stock, making the total over 20 shares sold for the season. There is good occupancy on Golf View and about 40 subleases in RV South.

Green noted that the staff has been working hard to reduce expenditures for the park.

Regarding the WiFi, it was suggested that individuals adjust their play-back settings on smart

JOHN GREEN

TVs. The suggestion was to take this setting off auto and put it on medium.

During the question and answer portion of the meeting there was considerable discussion about the WiFi regarding booster antennas, tuning the towers, etc.

Of interest to residents was what to do in the case of a storm warning. Hurricane notifications are usually given well in advance of the storm. It is the responsibility of the State, then the County, to determine if an evacuation is needed and to inform residents where to go.

Tornadoes do not allow for much advance warning. The TR Activity Book lists precautions which should be taken. However, it is not anticipated that an evacuation order would be issued. The speed at which these storm travel and their erratic nature usually preclude an evacuation. Our Fire Chief is in touch with the County Emergency Systems and will sound the siren when needed. A suggestion was made that a readily visible poster be placed in all buildings indicating what the various siren signals mean. This would help to put Golf View visitors at ease so they would know what is happening.

A resident asked if the volume of the siren could be adjusted. Understandably the volume at any given location is determined by the prevailing wind.

It was noted that the Sandhill Cranes are nesting on the Golf Course on the island by #2 tee. Ray Hill advised that a blind will be installed to protect the birds. He also warned residents about trying to get to the island as there are water moccasins in the area.

A resident questioned what may be included in the Capital Expenditures being considered by the Board. Green advised that the Maintenance Committee in conjunction with the Board establishes a list of projects.

Enjoy a Celtic Music Concert with Marcille Wallis and Friends on Wednesday

by Doug Pedersen

Marcille Wallis is a classically trained pianist who began her musical studies at age six. She added the guitar and eventually the hammer dulcimer as well as other folk instruments.

Wallis studied at London, England's Royal Academy of Music where some of her instructors were the same who had taught Elton John and collaborated in songwriting with Paul McCartney.

Now as a full-time, professional hammer dulcimer player, Marcille tours the country entertaining at fairs, festivals, churches, concerts, pubs and other functions. In addition to her solo performances, she is also the management and creative force behind Celtic Heritage Productions which produces Celtic music festivals throughout the southeastern U.S. Wallis has nine CDs to her credit and her music can be heard on radio stations and Internet broadcasts worldwide and on PBS television broadcasts across the U.S.

For at least the past 20 years, she has also entertained on her hammer dulcimer with a revolving collective of musicians and friends who have performed at some very impressive venues including North Carolina's Biltmore Estate, with the Memphis Scottish Society, Walt Disney World's Epcot Center and many others. They have become wellknown for their audience-friendly performances, tight instrumentation and thrillingly choreographed dance numbers. Residents may recall a wonderful St. Patrick's Day performance here in 2014.

The "friends" joining Marcille on stage Wednesday will include: Matt Miller the featured fiddler with the group also plays guitar. He is a Florida State Fiddle Champion and a Florida State Bluegrass Fiddle Champion. In addition to his Celtic/Bluegrass work with Marcille Wallis and Friends, he has authored a number of fiddle tunes and is a much sought after sideman who also plays rock and jazz styles.

Don Pigeon plays guitar, flute, whistle mandolin, tenor banjo and sings. Don grew up in the Irish musical tradition that is part of his native New England. He is also a popular session musician.

Kate Valley is a championship level, world-qualifying Irish dancer and a member of a Tampa Bay Celtic Dance Troupe.

Ann and Cal Lloyd perform their dances with the demonstration team of the Dunedin Class of the Royal Scottish Country Dance Society, as well as the Sarasota Scottish Country Dancers.

Join us at this Wednesday's Concert Series program as we take a step back with Marcille Wallis and Friends to enjoy these wonderful melodies and fascinating dances. Admission is with a reserved seat season ticket or with general admission at $10 per person payable at the door. Checks are acceptable and should be made payable to Travelers Rest Resort. Doors open at 6:30 p.m. and the two-hour program with intermission begins promptly at 7 p.m.

Award-winning comedienne Maryellen Hooper entertains this week

by Doug Pedersen

Maryellen Hooper is a veteran in the world of stand-up comedy. She has appeared on many television shows including The Tonight Show with Jay Leno and has had her own special called Lounge Lizards on Comedy Central. She has been honored with the American Comedy Awards' Female Comedian of the Year.

A physical storyteller, her act is an ever-evolving story about her life as a woman, wife and mother. Never crude or offensive, her accounts of life's little annoyances leave audiences exhausted from laughter. From home repairs on her family's fixer-upper to colicky babies, no story is too sacred to share with her audiences.

Several years ago she appeared at one of our Showcase Days and was very much enjoyed by all - many who told me they laughed until it hurt. Since then I've been trying to get her on our schedule, but hers and ours just didn't work out or the budget wasn't quite generous enough to get her here.

MARYELLEN HOOPER

This time we managed to make it work.

You will not want to miss Maryellen Hooper's appearance live on our stage.

Ice cream is available from 6:15 to 6:45 p.m. at which time announcements begin and the program follows immediately.

Briefings from the Board

by Margie Preister,
Corporate Secretary

Some of our TR activities have been assigned a Board Liaison. The Liaison is the person who establishes and maintains communication between the activity and the TR Board of Directors. Many issues or inquiries can be resolved when the Liaison brings an item to the Board for review and discussion. Liaisons may provide TR Policy information. They may remind the Activity Chairperson to share Board correspondence with the group. However, the Liaisons are not in charge of the activity. They do not speak for the Board unless the Board has instructed them to. The list of this season's Liaisons is posted on the Briefing from the Board bulletin board outside the TR Post Office. Each year the Liaison may be changed based on new incoming Board member assignments.

MARGIE PREISTER

Great News! Many of our residents have asked about the old signs on I-75 to identify TR under Camping. The Board and Management are please to let everyone know that new TR signs are ordered for I-75, Exit 293, going north and south. Hopefully they will be up when you make your return trip north.

Just a reminder that Feb. 14 is not only St. Valentine's Day, but the TR Alzheimer's Charity Day (Jeri Miller's column in page 6). You may need to plan your schedule carefully, because Feb. 17 is both the Pet Lover's Club Pet Fair and the TR park-wide Yard and Patio Sales. Keep your fingers-crossed for good weather for all of those events.

Our next Board meeting will be on Feb. 21 as we prepare for the Annual General Meeting (AGM) on March 14. It's also annual budget time for the Board. You will receive a copy of the TR financial documents at the door the day of the meeting. If you are not able to attend the AGM, contact the office after March 14 for a copy of that information. I will have an update on TR stocks and leases in next week's column.

These are then prioritized according to need and cost. Road resurfacing is an on-going project with a certain percentage of the park redone each year. The TRGA has been asked for a multi-year plan for the Golf Course. The Fire Department is expected to receive a new smaller fire truck. Green is concerned about its hose capacity and wonders if more fire hydrants will be needed. The Board is also contacting two companies with a view to replacing one of our water wells. The two wells currently in use are 33 and 43 years old. The law states we must have two wells in service if the park has over 100 connections.

With regard to the cabana which is being auctioned, Green advised that no viable offers had been received to date. The unit is still for sale and the Board is considering what action should be taken next. If anyone is interested in the unit, please contact the Main Office.

Jeri Miller reminded residents of the new Alzheimer's event on Valentine's Day, Treaties for TR Sweeties. If you do not know what to get for your Sweetie she suggests signing up for the event. $4 at the door will purchase a specialty ice cream sundae on Feb. 14 from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. in Busch Hall.

Still sharing our best

by Pam Watkins

We went to the Kumquat Festival last week to check out what I thought would be a wide variety of food made from kumquats. In Ohio we celebrate such festivals and one of the largest near us is the Circleville Pumpkin Show. There you can get the expected pumpkin pie and pumpkin ice cream, but also pumpkin burgers, pumpkin taffy, pumpkin soup, pumpkin waffles, pumpkin coffee, etc. I did not see quite so many kumquat foods in Dade City, but oh, the pie looked good. It looked very good – two pieces good, in fact. So, in further celebration of kumquats, and as it is kumquat season, and as one of the nation's largest producers is in our neighborhood, here are a couple of kumquat recipes from our TR cookbook. Go on, you know you want some . . .

Kumquat Dream Cake by Nancy Morrison (Cassels)

Sharing Our Best pg. 177

Cake

- 1 oz. Dream Whip (two envelopes)
- 1 angel food cake
- 1 pkg. cream cheese

Beat the cream cheese and Dream Whip together until peaks form and it is thick. Break the angel food cake into small pieces and place in the bottom of a 9x12 inch pan. Fold the whipped mixture into the cake. Smooth this across the bottom of the pan.

Topping

- 1 C. sugar
- 1 (3 oz.) pkg. orange Jello
- 2 T. cornstarch
- 1½ C. water
- 3 C. pureed kumquats

Put the water and cornstarch in a saucepan and bring to a boil, stir frequently. Add Jello when boiling, stir until dissolved, add sugar and kumquat puree and return to a boil for one minute. Remove and cool for a half hour. Pour over the cake. Make the day before needed.

Kumquat Pie by TR Gourmet

Sharing Our Best pg. 192

- 1-9inch baked pie crust
- 2/3 C. kumquat puree
- 1 can sweetened condensed milk
- 3 to 4 kumquats, seeded, finely chopped
- 1 (8 oz.) Cool Whip
- ½ C. lemon juice, freshly squeezed

Beat milk, Cool Whip and lemon juice. To prepare kumquat puree, slice in half, remove seeds and puree in a blender. Fold in kumquat puree. Pour into pie shell. Garnish with chopped kumquats. Chill in refrigerator or it may be frozen. Since chocolate makes anything taste better I plan to use an Oreo pie crust-yum-and I bought my puree at the Kumquat Growers, Inc. down the road. Don't judge me, I will squeeze my own lemon juice.

Pam Watkins is looking for copies of Sharing Our Best, TR's cookbook. Contact Pam at 11-10 if you have a copy you wish to donate.

A day outdoors

by Barbara Colson

The Geocaching Club had their weekly outing Tuesday, Jan. 31. We probably should be called the Hunt, Lunch and Hunt Club. We were thrilled to have three new people join our group for the day. Alice Amos and Shirley and Dave Sloop were not only able to find their first cache ever, but also find a few more.

The club stopped at Barb's Restaurant in Zephyrhills. We were not sure it would be a great place to eat, but we were pleasantly surprised with our delicious and affordable sandwiches.

One never knows what will be encountered on a day hiking in the woods. The club went to the Upper Hillsborough Wildlife Management Area near the Zephyrhills Airport. We found beautiful pine cones, a pen stuck in a tree, wild bantam chickens and plenty of warm, sunny Florida weather.

Happy Valentine's Day

How will you show your special someone that you love them this year?

You could take that someone to the Golden Anniversary Dance on Friday, Feb. 10. It isn't just for those celebrating their 50th anniversaries. Or, you could go to the Supper Club on Saturday, Feb. 11.

Page 9 of The TR Times lists an assortment of restaurants for your dining pleasure. Bonita Florist in Dade City is a source for a pretty bouquet.

Dinner and a movie is another option. Whatever you plan, don't forget that special Valentine's Day card. Just be sure to show that special someone just how special they are to you. mre

Sprinkles of Living Water

Love is a many-splendored thing

by Chaplain Winston Pike

“... it's the April rose that only grows in the early spring / Love is nature's way of giving a reason to be living / The golden crown that makes a man a king. . .etc.” That song reminds me of the old line that says, “In the spring a young man's fancy turns to the thing that a girl has been dreaming about all winter.” By the way, I cannot find the word splendored in my dictionary. But who cares? It sounds classy anyway. Definitions for splendor are words like luster, brilliance, pomp and grandeur. Sounds like love to me. How about you?

A meaningful, long-term romance of course amounts to more than sweet string music and a few syrupy words from a popular love song. Though all of that, along with flowers and such, and a few well-thought-out words of poetry may help to set the mood.

If the timing is right, this little TR Times article will hit the mailboxes a few days before Valentine's Day, giving you plenty of time to remind your sweetheart how much he or she means to you. It's an important milestone and should be happily remembered. How is it that couples tie up all the loose ends to a relationship and keep the whole operation going over the decades anyway? What is the pattern for such success?

Tim Hudson said that he and wife Shelia, recently celebrated their 30th anniversary. Somebody asked her what was the secret. She answered, “On my wedding day, I decided to make a list of 10 of Tim's faults which, for the sake of our marriage, I would always overlook. I figured I could live with at least 10.” When she was asked which faults she had listed, Shelia replied, “I never did get around to listing them. Instead, every time he does something that makes me mad, I simply say to myself, ‘Lucky for him, it's one of the 10.’” (Smart wife, that Shelia.)

Henry Ward Beecher once said, “I never knew how to worship until I knew how to love.” Profound statement but a true one.

was the best husband a woman could have; the older she gets the more interested he is in her.”

Ultimately, wonderful, long-term unions do come to an end. When that time comes we do well to remember the great words, “Don't cry because it's over; smile because it happened.”

The song was right. Love IS a many-splendored thing.

Such thinking works well in religion or in the bonds of matrimony. There is something about genuine, sincere love that enhances a relationship all the way around.

It was Agatha Christie who suggested that, “An archaeologist

Needle & Syringe Disposal for Pasco County

by Jean Cobb

Several residents who self-administer insulin or other medications have asked for information about safe disposal of needles while they are here in Florida. I spoke with the coordinator of this program and verified that it is available to 'snowbirds' and our Canadian friends as they winter at TR. Please note that Bayfront Dade City and Florida Hospital Zephyrhills participate in this program. Read below and you will know exactly what to do!

Sharps Program

The "Sharps" program provides diabetics and people who administer self injections at home with a means to dispose of their "Sharps": needles, syringes, tubes and other sharps in a very safe manner. It is estimated that nearly 14,000 insulin-dependent people reside in Pasco County in addition to seasonal visitors who use sharps. Furthermore, there are others whose medical conditions require the use of injected medication. At a minimum of one injection per day, one million needles enter the solid waste stream annually in our county. In the past, these needles clogged our sewer system, ended up at our recycling centers, punctured and put at risk garbage workers, not to mention they are a threat to public safety.

Today, with nine hospitals and institutions sponsoring this program, participation by the residents is increasing and the utilization of this service diminishes the risk to public health.

This program is very simple and the sponsoring hospitals and institutions are easily accessible. The program calls for the participant to go to one of the designated locations and obtain a red "Sharps" container. Once the container is filled, it is sealed and returned to the same location and exchanged for a new one.

Please see below to find a participation location near you. For additional information, contact our office at (813) 929-2755 ext. 6896.

TR residents and friends predict the outcome of the Super Bowl

by Richard Hunt

On Sunday, as the soup and $$ came in, the Atlanta Falcons box started filling up and took an early lead. But surprisingly the box for the New England Patriots started filling toward the end of the collection and ultimately was able to squeak out a win.

Here are the statistics:
Atlanta 133 cans, $44 for a total score of 177.

New England 175 cans, $17 for a total score of 192.

The real winner was the Daystar Hope and the TR folks who helped replenish their pantry.

Thank you TR residents and Darold Long for managing the collection and distribution.

Activity Affairs

Happy Valentine's Day ♥

by Jeri Miller,
Activity Coordinator
@ 1125 or 352-588-5448

Thought to begin our day - a reading from It's a happy thing - to love what you do and feel that it matters - how could anything be more fun.

Alzheimer's Day - Our Alzheimer's fundraiser is falling on Valentine's Day this year. You will be able to bring your valentine up to Busch Hall for a very special Treatie for your TR Sweetie on Tuesday, Feb. 14 between 5:30 and 7:30 p.m. This will be a sundae with a delicious homemade brownie, topped by ice cream, hot fudge, caramel, whipped cream and a cherry. We will also have yogurt available. The cost for this super treat is $4 at the door. Please sign up on the Bulletin Board in Busch Hall so we can get a count.

Memory Banners will be available for you to fill out at this event. Donations are appreciated.

Harvey's RV has donated a 32" TV that we are raffling off. You can purchase your raffle tickets before the Sunday Night Program or when you come for your sundae at the fundraiser described above. The drawing will take place at the very end.

We hope that you choose to wear something that you truly love and wish us to enjoy.

The most important thing is the fact that this is a fund-raiser for Alzheimer's. However, you might want to just make a donation. If it is a check make it out to Alzheimer's. Everyone is welcome to attend this fun-filled social. Hopefully you will "love it." As long as you love it, it is going to be more fun.

Silent Auction - While the auction part might be silent, we hope that the purchasers aren't. This is the fourth time around and we hope that it is as successful as our past auctions. Many of us have attended those auctions and found it to be a wonderful way to raise much-needed funds.

JERI MILLER

Now for the five W's . . .

Who - The Silent Auction

What - Items donated for the Auction can be dropped off at lot 11-25 or brought to Busch Hall at 11 a.m. the day of the Auction. We need help from all of our friends and neighbors.

When - Thursday, Feb. 23 after the TRGA Spaghetti Dinner. There is still time to get your tickets for dinner. You do want to support this money-raiser for the TRGA.

Bidding will begin at 1 p.m. and close promptly at 7 p.m. We hope to see traffic during the day checking on the items that they are interested in.

Auction purchases will be announced soon after the Auction is over. Hopefully TR residents will show up for the announcement of the winning bids but you don't have to be there to win.

Where - Busch Hall in front of the stage before and during the Spaghetti Dinner.

Why - This is the activity that supports all of TR's activities. There are still many items on our wish list and it is always wonderful to see new items added to our TR home. Look for our new pickle ball net and shuffleboard discs. Yeah. Always "love" to see wishes fulfilled.

Yard and Patio Sales & Pet Lovers Fair - Friday, Feb. 17 needs to be marked on your calendar. Our own Pet Lovers Activity is sponsoring a Pet Fair with many vendors coming to TR from all over our area. There will be many services offered to our TR residents during this event. Pet Lovers are also having their own yard sale down at the area by the Produce Stand. No produce that day. If you have anything you want to donate just bring it on down before the event starts.

Now, for our own annual park-wide sale throughout all of TR. It is the time of year when treasures are placed in front of our lots and offered up for sale. You never know what you are going to find and that is what makes it so much fun.

Garden Club will be selling their coffee and donuts during the day. This is a good money-raiser for them with your support.

Yoga update - Just want to let you know that as of now Yoga will be meeting on Tuesdays and Fridays in Citrus East from 3:15 to 4:30 p.m., same building and same time. Easier for us to remember.

Final thought - Remember, you are encouraged to take an active part in the activities that interest you. Almost every activity is open to all. An offer to help is always appreciated. That's how we keep all our activities going.

As always, you have the most important role in the active life we enjoy here at Travelers Rest.

SkyMed announces luncheon

by JJ Johnjulo

SkyMed will host a meatloaf luncheon and seminar on Saturday, Feb. 18 at 12:30 p.m. in Paul Ruth Place.

Attend the seminar to register for a drawing as you learn how you can become a SkyMed member while here at TR. Please sign up on the bulletin board in Busch Hall so JJ will know how many meals to order. Members and guests are encouraged to attend.

Alzheimer's Association presents Coffee Seminar

by Margaret Melville

Alzheimers has touched all of our lives. Perhaps a friend or family member has been a victim of this devastating disease. Come Tuesday, Feb. 14, 8 a.m. to Busch Hall for the Coffee Seminar given by Craig Mayers from the Alzheimers Association. Craig will speak on the research being done to learn more about this devastating disease. Coffee, tea and complimentary breakfast treats will be available.

Use it or lose it

by Margaret Melville

The topic of discussion at the Thursday, Feb. 16 Coffee Seminar will be keeping yourself physically fit. Senior wellness is always on our minds.

Joel Knickerbocker, Physical Therapist with Pasco Rehabilitation in Dade City will present an interactive program where you will test yourself and see where you are lacking and where you need to work to remain independent and functional.

For 27 years this independently-owned family business has rehabilitated Dade City residents. Complimentary coffee, tea and breakfast treats will be available thanks to our speaker.

See you on Thursday, Feb. 16, 8 to 9 a.m. in Busch Hall.

Attention Singer Featherweight lovers

by Penny Kraemer

by Nancy Scharsich

All who can claim North or South Carolina as their home, whether for a day or longer, please join us on Saturday, Feb. 18 at 4 p.m. at the Snack Shack Shelter.

It is a potluck, so bring a dish to share, your table service and preferred beverage.

Please sign up on the sheet posted on the Bulletin Board in Busch Hall.

For more information contact Nancy Scharsich at lot 08-17 or call 828-226-1654.

Indiana Day is Feb. 20

by Carol Yoder

Calling all Hoosiers past and present to enjoy spending quality time with your Indiana friends and neighbors. We will be having lunch together on Monday, Feb. 20 at the Country Kitchen Restaurant in Brooksville. Please join us at 11 a.m.

We will order off the restaurant's extensive menu and enjoy discussing all of the great people and places in our state.

Each attendee will be responsible for his/her payment.

The Country Kitchen is located at 20133 Cortez Blvd. in Brooksville.

Please contact Carol Yoder at lot 19-24 or phone 260-820-3481 by Sunday, Feb. 19.

Once a Girl Scout, always a Girl Scout

by Mary Ann Chellman

Back in 2012, former and current Girl Scouts and Girl Guides at TR gathered for the first time. The date was March 12 and the purpose was to celebrate the 100th anniversary of the founding of Girl Scouting in the U.S.

This year we will gather on Saturday, March 11 at 3 p.m. in Citrus West to celebrate 105 years of this volunteer organization that claims to have millions of alumnae throughout the world. We are confident that there are more than the 30 men and women who are former Girl Scouts or Girl Guides in volunteer-rich TR. Put the time and date on your calendar and join the fun.

Girl Scouting today challenges girls to grow and live lives of courage, confidence and character with the main reason of making the world a better place.

Ireland Revisited

by Barbara Colson

Come join me on a visit to Ireland on Monday, Feb. 13 at 3 p.m. in Citrus West.

I will show you several places that I visited in 2015 on the Cahal Dunne Ireland Tour.

We'll land in Shannon, visit many medieval castles, see the Cliffs of Moher, stop in Galway, travel around the Dingle Peninsula, kiss the Blarney Stone, see Dublin and a few other places.

Calling TR Lady Builders

by Barbara Colson

If you have never held a hammer in your hand before, do not worry. Habitat for Humanities will teach you.

The Women's Build is Feb. 17 and 18 this year. We have several ladies in TR who love to do this build. I saw on Facebook that if enough ladies sign up, they may open another day or two for this build. You must register on line. If you have any questions please call Barbara Colson at 352-206-3210, or you can contact me at: RVfly48@gmail.com. I live at 2604 in the Village.

Also, please sign up on the Bulletin Board in Busch Hall, on the Post Office side, that you are going and if you can drive. We want to be able to carpool. If you can't get to Busch Hall just call me or send me an email or text message.

Hope to see you on the build.

These ladies look ready, willing and able to help Habitat for Humanity on one of their many very worthwhile projects. They would love to have you join them.

Time to plan your trip

Norie Berndt explains upcoming trips to a full house at a recent Coffee Seminar.

by Sharon Cook
Tour Director

Tomorrow 18 of your TR friends will be heading to Miami for the Sweetheart Cruise. We are sorry you aren't going with us but following are the trips scheduled for the 2017-2018 season. Now is the time to sign up for whichever interests you so you won't miss the fun again next season.

1. A 6-day/5-night bus trip to Asheville, N.C. to see the Biltmore Estate all decked out in its awesome Christmas finery. Check out the flyer for this trip to see all that is included. It will take place Nov. 12 to 17, the week before Thanksgiving, and the cost is $495 per person. Diamond Tours that I used for the Savannah trip has planned this one for us. They do an excellent job.

2. The day trip will be Thursday, Jan. 11 to Disney Springs in Orlando for lunch at The House of Blues Restaurant followed by the Cirque Du Soleil Show. The cost is $150 per person.

3. The Sweetheart Cruise will be on the Norwegian Dawn sailing from Tampa Feb. 7 to 18. Ports-of-call are St. Thomas, Tortola, Antigua, St. Maarten and San Juan. Inside cabins start at $999, ocean view/picture window $1279 and balcony $1759.

4. The final trip will be a 15-day cruise round-trip from Los Angeles to Hawaii. Visited will be Hilo, Honolulu, Nawiliwili, Maui and Ensenada, Mexico. Inside cabins start at $1917 per person, ocean view $2517 and balcony $3017.

If you are interested in any of these trips, please do not put off signing up. Paying the required deposit reserves you a spot. Norie can give you information on the cruise lines' cancellation policy and I can tell you about the policy on the other two trips. In most cases restaurants, shows and cruise lines require final numbers at least a month in advance so waiting until you return to TR in the fall to sign up is not a good idea.

I will be glad to answer questions email shermie@juno.com, 352-588-2708, or my cell 813-956-7977. Brochures are on the yellow Travel Board on the Post Office side of Busch Hall.

The Meet The Candidates Meeting was short but instructive

by John Lawrence

There was a change in this year's Meet The Candidates meeting from our traditional Q&A format. The TR Times proffered three questions to each of our three candidates well before the meeting so they could better prepare their answers.

As usual TR Times Editor Margaret Emmetts moderated the meeting. She opened the meeting at 1 p.m. The candidates then gave their opening statements.

Donna J. Martz opened her remarks by introducing herself as "DJ" Martz and related her experience in 2005 staying overnight on Golf View during a rough windstorm in a 25 foot Airstream that Uncle Clint Taylor had forgotten to tie down. "I thought that at any moment I was going to roll right down the hill. The trailer was really rocking!" The following morning when Aunt Gladys heard about the misadventure she was quite short with Uncle Clint. She went on to say that, "TR reminds me of an old time small town, with our feelings of unity, kinship and friendship all working for the betterment of our community. That is not the case back home." She continued on to recount the many amenities and activities that TR offers stating that her two favorites are golf and, somewhat surprisingly, the woodshop. She emphatically stated, "I want this place to continue and that's why I have chosen this time as my turn to contribute by serving on the Board."

Steve Smith confessed to never being an RVer. He is a second generation resident who has lived here for the past seven years; his father died here and Steve got married here. He is seeking his second term on the Board. In his first term he has learned from some great teachers about many things he did not know about the park and he has been dedicated to monitoring the ever-changing way TR is being run. He would like to continue changing from running it like a club to running it like a business. Steve said, "If we don't run it as a business, this park will close. Also, we are getting to the point where a lot of great people who have done great work in the past will no longer be on the Board in a couple of years. I would like to provide some continuity as someone who can act as a sort of historian, someone who knows what will work and what will not work."

Carole Young spent ten days here in 2015 with Mary Carpenter. She went home to Michigan, sold her house and bought a park model to put on lot 14-01. She is now a full-time resident. Carole stated, "I love TR and I am excited to be part of its future. I feel a duty to serve in some way. I know that I have the background and the skills to be an asset on the Board."

Editor Emmetts then asked the first question of each candidate, "What will you bring to the Board?"

Martz stated her experience in budgeting, her computer skills, her concerns about finance and her total commitment to do her best for the stockholders and residents of TR."

Smith: "Experience. It takes a couple of years to figure out what is going on, what the issues are now and what they may be in the future. I have done a lot of different things such as being President of the State Retired Employees in Delaware with 10,000 members and I made sure that their benefits were there for them. Setting a five year goal plan is important for us and I hope to continue working in that direction."

Young: "I bring years of managements skills. I was a manager for Illinois Bell with 30 employees; I worked on a two million dollar budget for the Village of Pentwater Mich. and handled all financial matters. I taught math at several levels from junior high school to college. I also owned a bookkeeping business. These experiences will serve me well on the Board. In addition, I love to work with people."

Emmetts: "How do you visualize the Park in ten years?"

Martz: "I would like to see the Park still here. It is imperative to run it as a business. I would like to see all buildings and infrastructure maintained, improved and possibly replaced as necessary. Don't laugh, but I would like to see a standardized WiFi and Cable TV System that includes bringing back Channel 25. A lot of you have expressed the need for Channel 25 and I always watched it to see what was going on. I would like to see more volunteerism from the baby boomers, and some of the millennials that are coming in are even worse when it comes to that. If we don't get volunteers and we have to start paying for things, that is not going to be good for our budget."

Young: "I see more park models coming in and I hope to see that continue, hopefully with a waiting list. There is a definite need for more volunteerism. It keeps the Resort vibrant."

Smith: "Ten years from now the park will be a lot different. There is less volunteerism now and so less personal investment in the Park. The next generations might be more transient. They may only stay a year or two before moving on. We have already seen that and it may be a trend. It will be a challenge to keep the park full. In the past we have been willing and able to change when we needed to. We do need to push for more volunteerism. Things are also changing around us as developers begin to move in. The park is and will be changing and we need to be ready to meet the challenges."

Emmetts: "Tell us what you would like people to know about yourself."

Young: "I was born and raised in Chicago where my father was a policeman. After getting my college degree I moved to Michigan. Because of moving around, my two boys have been raised in a city as well as a small town environment. My oldest lives in Grand Rapids and is a computer geek. He has three girls. My other son is a minister in Montana. I am engaged in many activities in TR including the knitting group, card playing, the newspaper and I teach basket weaving. I have made lots of friends, and I truly enjoy my life here."

Smith: I love going to school and I have five different degrees. I spent most of my life in Delaware and I went to college in North Carolina. I have made a lot of friends here, I got married here and I like it here and try to take things one day at a time."

Martz: "I worked as a Speech Pathologist for 35 years in schools near Pittsburgh and, yes, I am a Steeler fan. When I retired from Public Schools I became my Mom's caregiver. In TR I have been involved in the Quilt-a-Rama, the Fashion Show, cake sales, the pasta dinners, the Walks for Cancer and Alzheimer's cures and many other fundraising activities. I have just completed my three year term as the TR Golf Association Treasurer. Tonight we start our 'pen making for women' in the woodshop. We have 32 women signed up."

Emmetts: "Is there anything else that you would like to say? No? OK. We will stay here for a few minutes if there are any individual questions you may want to ask. Thank you for coming."

The meeting ended at 1:35 p.m.

Library News

by Mary Kosbab

I recently went to the library to search for some books to celebrate Valentine's Day. A search of the Internet listed several classics so I went to that collection and began browsing the shelves. I quickly came upon Elizabeth Barrett Browning's Sonnets from the Portuguese and Other Poems. I must admit I have never read any of her work but knew that one of her poems is the infamous "How do I love thee? Let me count the ways..." so I thought this book would be a good one to use to celebrate our upcoming holiday.

Elizabeth Barrett Browning (1806-1861) was a prolific writer and reviewer in the Victorian period. In her lifetime her reputation as a poet was at least as great as that of her husband, poet Robert Browning. Some of her poetry has been noted in recent years for strong feminist themes, but the poems for which Elizabeth Barrett Browning is undoubtedly best known are a series of 44 sonnets written in secret about the intense love she felt for her husband-to-be, poet Robert Browning. She called this series Sonnets From the Portuguese, a title based on the pet name Robert gave her: "my little Portuguese."

I noted by the little slip in the book that the last time it had been read here at TR was in the 2014 season, so I am sure it would very much like to be picked up and enjoyed by any of you who are searching for a little romantic reading.

While browsing the Classics I found several books which I intend to read. Many of these books are older ones with bookcovers that are not very enticing, but when I looked up some of their reviews on the Internet I found that their content sounds very interesting. I hope you will take some time to look carefully at this collection. I am sure you would find some very worthwhile reading - maybe some books you always meant to read. Now is your chance.

As always if you have any concerns or suggestions for our library please contact June Muir-Duffy or me. We always welcome your input.

Books in the Library

by Patti Meadows

The Handmaid's Tale

by Margaret Atwood Fiction - Paperback

In the world of the near future, who will control women's bodies? Offred is a handmaid in the Republic of Gilead. She may leave the home of the Commander and his wife once a day to walk to food markets whose signs are now pictures instead of words because women are no longer allowed to read. She must lie on her back once a month and pray that the Commander makes her pregnant, because in an age of declining births, Offred and the other handmaids are only valued if their ovaries are viable. ****

Last Days of Night

by Graham Moore Fiction - Paperback

New York, 1888. Gas lamps still flicker in the city streets, but the miracle of electric light is in its infancy. The person who controls the means to turn night into day will make history and a vast fortune. A young untested lawyer named Paul Cravath, fresh out of Columbia Law School, takes a case that seems impossible to win Paul's client, George Westinghouse, has been sued by Thomas Edison over a billion dollar question: Who invented the light bulb and holds the right to power the country? *****

Song Yet Sun

by James McBride Fiction - Paperback

In the days before the Civil War, a runaway slave named Liz

Spocott breaks free from her captors and escapes into the labyrinthine swamps of Maryland's eastern shore, setting loose a drama of violence and hope among slave catchers, plantation owners, watermen, runaway slaves and free blacks. Liz is near death, wracked by disturbing visions of the future and armed with "the Code," a fiercely guarded cryptic means of communication for slaves on the run. Liz's flight and her dreams of tomorrow will thrust all those near her toward a mysterious, redemptive fate. *****

Agent Zigzag

by Ben MacIntyre Nonfiction - Biography

Eddie Chapman was a charming criminal, a con man and a philanderer. He was also one of the most remarkable double agents Britain has ever produced. Inside the traitor was a man of loyalty; inside the villain was a hero. The problem for Chapman, his spymasters and his lovers was to know where one persona ended and the other began.

Based on recently declassified files, Agent Zigzag tells Chapman's full story for the first time. It's a gripping tale of loyalty, love, treachery, espionage and the thin and shifting line between fidelity and betrayal. *****

The Nazi Officer's Wife

by Edith Hahn Beer Nonfiction - Biography

Edith Hahn was an outspoken young woman studying law in Vienna when the Gestapo forced Edith and her mother into a Jewish ghetto.

Edith was taken away to a labor camp, and when she returned home months later, she found her mother had been deported.

Knowing she would become a hunted woman, Edith went underground, scavenging for food and searching each night for a safe place to sleep. Her boyfriend, Pepi, proved too terrified to help her, but a Christian friend was not.

Using the woman's identity papers, Edith fled to Munich. There she met Werner Vetter, a Nazi Party member who fell in love with her.

Despite her protests and even her eventual confession that she was Jewish, he married her and kept her identity a secret. *****

Pets on Parade

A new home for Queen Samantha

by Betsy Behler

Meet Samantha, who is a purebred, doll-faced Persian cat. She is eight years old, spayed and declawed and is from Pennsylvania. She is definitely a people cat. You can tell this by her eagerness to gently head butt you and be under foot at all times. She is more than happy to share her home with you and loves attention. She enjoys being with people and loves to nap with and sleep at night with her daddy Mike.

Due to the high cost of transporting her via airplane, like other pet owners in the park, her owners purchased a beautiful Winnebago motorhome for her to travel in. She loves it and is still exploring in it. Just yesterday Samantha was missing, Mike and Donna searched all over the motorhome but Samantha was nowhere to be found. Finally, at dinner time they heard a slight meow and there, behind the TV cabinet, under all the items in the cabinet was Samantha, so happy she had found a new place to hide.

She has a new lion haircut, her tail is still bushy but her body is shaven and her face is long-haired. Such a pretty kitty.

The Dohn's have two dishes of pet grass growing on the dashboard of their motorhome which Samantha loves to eat. In the attached picture, you can see her with her grass dish. She also has a cute little toy that holds string treats. If allowed, she will eat the entire string at one time.

Samantha is not spoiled but overly loved. She is truly the "Queen Cat" in her new motorhome castle.

Pet Lovers Club

by Tia Paquette

If you have a pet please come to our Pet Fair, Friday, Feb. 17 by the Produce Stand! If it rains it will be in Citrus with some outside under tents.

We will have adoptable dogs looking for their forever home. There will be demos of Service Dogs, Therapy Dogs, rally and agility. We have many booths, samples and information. We will be taking pet portraits, so bring your pets for a beautiful picture! There will be a raffle for you and your pet and we have donations to give away! We will even give away a chance to win a sketch of your pet, by Helen Villazon...she does pretty amazing drawings! You have to be a Pet Lovers Club Member to enter, just fill out a coupon, no fee!

Please come on over and say hi and support our Pet Lovers Club. It will be a great place to browse and get to know your local businesses that offer pet services.

Phone-ography has come of age ...

by Linda Quinn

Our generation has witnessed major changes in photography over the decades. I'm sure most of you remember using Brownie Instamatic or Polaroid cameras. We now live in the age of digital photography; Kodak and Polaroid cameras are only memories and it is almost impossible to buy film cameras or film. For most of us the go-to camera is the one in our mobile phone, something we probably never envisioned even ten years ago.

By the late-1990s digital cameras were starting to become mainstream and by 2010 just about everyone had replaced their film cameras with digital. The more serious among us used DSLR cameras (digital single-lens reflex), the digital equivalent of a 35mm single-lens reflex camera, and most snapshot cameras, known as point & shoot cameras, were digital as well. I carried a small point & shoot in my purse so that I would never be without a camera.

In 2011 I bought my first iPhone, an iPhone 4, but I didn't use the camera much because the quality of the photos it captured did not match the quality of my point & shoot. Over the next few years as I upgraded my phone, first to an iPhone 5 and then an iPhone 6, the quality of the photos kept improving. I often found myself taking a photo with my DSLR or point & shoot, and then taking the same photo with my iPhone as well. Eventually I stopped using the point & shoot because the iPhone 6 photos were just that good. What really surprised me is how infrequently I found myself using my DSLR.

As some of you might know, I consider myself a fine art photographer and photographs of mine have been accepted for exhibit in a variety of juried art shows. Last summer I was privileged to have a photograph accepted in the 2nd International Phone-ography Exhibition. What made that exhibition unique is that all of the displayed photographs were taken with a mobile phone (the majority iPhones), and the quality of the work was outstanding. Over three hundred photographers submitted entries and thirty were chosen by the juror to be printed and displayed. At the show's opening the other 270 photographs were available for viewing on a computer screen and the quality of the images easily rivaled photographs taken with single-lens reflex cameras.

LINDA QUINN

In September Apple introduced the iPhone 7 and I was excited to buy one — specifically the iPhone 7 Plus which features dual lenses. The main lens is the same lens found on the previous model, the iPhone 6s(28mm), a moderately wide-angle lens which is similar to lenses found on most point & shoot cameras. (Note: the wider the angle of the lens, the wider the field of vision.) The second lens is a telephoto lens(56mm) that brings objects closer to the viewer.

In September I traded in my iPhone 6 for an iPhone 7 Plus and I couldn't be happier with the camera. The photo quality is better than that of the iPhone 6 and I love having a telephoto lens available immediately.

Last season I wrote about wide-angle, telephoto and macro Moment Lenses that attach to my iPhone (also available for Android phones). The lenses are made of high quality glass and work flawlessly.

The Moment wide-angle is an 18mm lens that offers an even wider field of vision than the native lens, (the photo that was selected for inclusion in the Phone-ography exhibition was taken with a Moment wide-angle lens) and the macro lens is designed for extreme close-ups. I still use both of these lenses, but the Moment telephoto lens is roughly equivalent to the built-in telephoto on the iPhone 7 plus, and has become superfluous.

In an in-depth comparison of images from a high-end DSLR camera and a mobile phone camera, the DSLR image is superior, but only marginally. I still use my DSLR and its 300 mm telephoto lens to bring distant objects closer than I could ever get with my iPhone. But for most of my day-to-day shooting I need nothing more than my iPhone. As the now popular saying goes, the best camera is the one you have with you when you need it.

Next week I'll cover some tips on how to shoot the best photos possible with a mobile phone camera.

Garden News

Blooming buds

by Mary Lou Burkhart

It's February and springtime is around the corner at Travelers Rest. Tiny buds are beginning to show color in the cactus garden, azaleas are blooming behind the snack shack and bromeliad pups are independent of their mother plants. Milt is scattering grass seed on the front lawn near the TR sign, so please do us a favor by not walking there until the grass is established.

Plans are in the works for two Bismarck Palms to be placed in honor of our gardeners past, present and future. Lucy thinks they should be named "Thank You" trees since they are a tribute to all TR gardeners. If you've never seen a Bismarck, there are two flanking a driveway three houses down when you turn left on Johnston Rd. They are very showy silver palm trees. They will be a classy asset to our garden during the Garden Walk on Sunday, March 5.

MARY LOU BURKHART

Lake Margaret Garden is taking on a more controlled look for a change. If you've noticed a lot of ferns have been removed and those that remain are more strategically located as a backdrop to our already mature growth. Rick is planning a bamboo nursery to replace the dead bamboo which has been removed. Richard will be working with the banana trees so they will not overpower everything else. Robin is bursting at the seams to create her pond haven. Weather plays a part in all of the plans we have, as do costs.

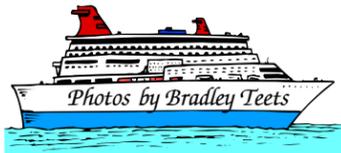

I can see a transition taking place in the garden as we acquire new members. It is so heartening to observe their enthusiasm. People are using talents and innovations we never would have thought possible. There was concern for a while about us "older" people fading away and unable to work the way we used to and who would take our place. We welcome and encourage our newbies as the gifts they have become. They will be carrying on the tradition of peace and tranquility that Lake Margaret Garden represents. TR is evolving and growing into a younger persons' resort as more and more millennials retire. And as hard as it is to deal with change, we must look to the future of the park and our beloved garden.

The carpenters are busily at work building a new gazebo. The rebuilding and shoring-up of the boardwalk will be done with the cooperation of our maintenance crews.

I mentioned last week that some of us went on a luncheon cruise out of Clearwater on the Calypso Queen and this week Bradley Teets submitted pictures to prove it. The upshot of the whole experience is that we have uncovered a talented photographer among us. Maybe he will agree to take more photos in the future. We hope so.

Birding Activity

A great birding week

by Norm Eden

For the second successive week the Tuesday bird walk started off from the Post Office veranda at 8 am in very cool temperatures. We proceeded down through the TR garden to Lake Margaret. The ten birders totally outnumbered the birds as there was nothing to be seen. But on around Vanishing Lake and the rest of the walk things improved as the sun rose and warmed everyone up. Over 30 species were noted and in addition two new sightings for our TR winter count were recorded in recent days. One of which can be classified as important for Pasco and Hernando County birding records. It was a true snowbird, very rare in Florida as it shouldn't really be here at all; a Dark-eyed Junco recorded and photographed by Harold Baal on 10th Street a few days ago. This is a real Best Bird very familiar to many of us each winter before we escape south to TR. Breeding in Canada and wintering throughout the mid-west and south but not Florida, this member of the sparrow family is regularly seen by all of us from the near or distant north. This was a very unexpected addition.

Some 40 miles from TR, Lakeland is the location for Circle Bar B Reserve, a birding and nature reserve that is rated by Audubon to be in the top 50 in the nation. It is a total environmental preservation success story for Polk County which developed the reserve over the past 16 years as part of an overall plan to eliminate pollution of Lake Hancock and the surrounding area. Now it is a great birding area that eight TR birders (Peg Stevens, Harold and Janet Baal, Jon and Therese LeGro, Mark and Joanna Walz and the writer) visited on Feb. 2. On this visit we reserved seats on the tram ride for a two-hour tour where we had a first-class guide and saw many great birds. Peg Stevens, a year round TR resident and very experienced birder, got her first record of a Limpkin for her lifetime bird list. This reserve is well worth a visit for everyone including non-birders. There is a nature center at Circle B Bar, good parking facilities, rest rooms and picnic areas, The tram ride is free but requires reservations. Google Circle Bar B or go to www.swfwmd.state.fl.us for more information.

HAROLD BAAL

The Physics behind the wonder of rainbows

by Carol Lauer

Young and old – we've all been enchanted by rainbows. They just naturally conjure up feelings of good cheer and good fortune. Their appearance after a rain shower dispels the gloom of the dark skies and fills us with a sense of hope in the world. We recall the story of God's blessing of a rainbow as a token of his covenant with Noah after the deluge.

How is a rainbow formed? A short lesson in physical science will help us out. Sunlight appears to us as white light, but white light is actually made up of many different colors, each with its own wavelength. When sunlight strikes a raindrop, it is bent or refracted due to the curvature of the raindrop. It is then reflected off the back side of the raindrop and refracted again as it exits the front. Each color component does this at a different angle.

The best time to view a rainbow is right after showers have passed to the east and the sun is reappearing in the west. When you stand with the sun at your back and the passing rain showers some distance in front of you, you are in the middle. All raindrops can reflect all colors, but each color you will see depends on the angle formed as the sunlight strikes the raindrop and bounces back to your eyes. Raindrops in different relative positions reflect different wavelengths or colors and a brilliant rainbow appears.

But guess what? You are only seeing half of the rainbow. A rainbow is actually a full circle that is only visible from above the earth, as in an airplane. When you are standing on the ground, the lower the sun is on the horizon, the higher the rainbow will appear in the sky; but the most that you can ever see is an arc.

The Boogie Night Bash is a big success

Group line dancing . . .

by Judy Smith

Music, dancing and food at the Boogie Bash, what more could you ask for? Last Friday night entering Busch Hall we were treated to a sea of turquoise decorations. Think Spring!

We enjoyed a delicious meal of Cornish hen, vegetables, rice and dessert. Yummy!

Soon music from four decades brought the crowd to its feet. Special dances including the Macarena and Electric Slide provided entertainment for non-dancers. The dancing continued long into the night. Many happy dancers awoke with sore feet on Saturday morning.

Golf news and notes

How to enjoy your golf game even if it's not going well

by George Paquette

I thought I'd share some ideas I've gathered reviewing different golf articles on how to make golf fun when you're having a bad round.

Personalize your game.

When you're on the course keep a record of your personal best score on each hole and try to break as many of your lows as you can. This approach will have you focused on one hole at a time which will help to take your mind off the overall score. As well, any hole where you improve on your personal best score will have you smiling.

Give yourself a lesson.

Pick one area of your game to improve. Maybe your wedges need improving or your backswing could be shorter. This gives you a positive to focus on instead of the negative of your score and you get on-course training that will serve you down the road.

Remember your best shots.

Remember them in detail, how they felt and the flight of the ball. According to Daniel Kahneman, a Nobel prize-winning psychology professor at Princeton University, focusing on the highlights of a given activity activates "the remembering self" part of memory that fondly recalls events that seemed largely unpleasant at the time. Picking two "happy" shots can turn an ugly round into a pleasant memory.

Put it in your pocket.

I've read articles that suggest on a really bad hole, where nothing is going right, to just pick up your ball and move on to the next hole. There's no shame in pocketing your ball. For one thing it keeps play moving so you don't feel like you are slowing anyone down. You can also just move up to the green chip and putt. I've played with friends who have done both and I have done it as well.

Have a go-to Club.

There are times when nothing seems to be working. When that happens choose a club you're very comfortable with regardless of the distance you can achieve. Using a club you have confidence in will help you get back on track.

Take Walter Hagen's advice.

Walter Hagen was an American professional golfer and a major figure in golf in the first half of the 20th century. He said that going into any round he accepted the fact that he would miss-hit five or six shots. Bad shots are part of the game for all players. Understand it and don't beat yourself up over it.

TRGA annual Spaghetti Dinner is on Thursday, Feb. 23 at 5 p.m. in Busch Hall. Tickets are $10 and can be purchased Sunday evenings at Busch Hall Feb. 12 and 19 or in the Post Office Lobby on Feb. 16 and 21 between 2 and 4 p.m. Seating is limited and tickets will go quickly so don't miss your chance for a good meal with friends.

Today we had 58 playing America's game, Red, White and Blue. There were lots of birds and chip-ins. I guess that is why the players love this game. There was one new member today, Rob Matthews. As always there was lots of laughter and fun, which is the way it is supposed to be.

Keep your head in the game

by Maggie Crawford

Well folks, another Ladies League golf day is done and dusted. I don't know what it is about my game but on Wednesday mornings, everything seems to fall apart. I have not had a good game this year. Oh well. There's hope that next week will be better. Well done everybody on the Leader Board so to speak. Congratulations to you birdie winners, all on #2. They were: Laura Apgar, Vicki Brooks, Pat McCallum and Sylvia Savoie. Good to see so many of you getting those birdies. Pat McCallum even had a chip-in along with Chris Marsh. Great job ladies. If anybody gets a hole-in-one please let me know so that I can arrange for your name to go on the trophy plaque. I am at lot 08-16 in RV South and my telephone number is 352-588-0816. Also, would you please save your empty wine bottles for decorating Busch Hall for our spaghetti supper on Feb. 23 in support of the beautification of our golf course. While I am mentioning the golf course, I would like to thank everybody who works on Tuesday mornings to make it look so lovely. I don't think that I have seen a prettier course, ever.

Tip of the Week: Create a solid stance. Create a stance which is wide, solid, stable and balanced. Build your golf swing from the ground up.

Joke of the Week: #6 Golfer: "You've got to be the worst caddy in the world." Caddy: "I don't think so sir. That would be too much of a coincidence."

How the 18-inch Outreach Program got started

by John Lawrence

Darold Long told me he remembers a seminar where he learned that the most important distance that we all travel in our life-long journey is the 18 inches from our brain to our heart. Darold and his wife Marilyn now call their ministry at TR the 18-inch Outreach Program.

This is the way it started and grew: On a trip to deliver some donated food and other items to Daystar Hope Center they found the pantry doors closed. Darold inquired as to the reason and he was told that the pantry had run out of food. They saw that a mother was there with some small children waiting for food. Seeing those poor children at Christmastime stirred Darold. His heart told his brain that something needed to be done. They had an inspiration. They went to nearby Tin Can Pams and told the owners that they would like to purchase food at a discount to donate to the charity. After thinking about it for a few days, the store owners called Darold and told him that they would sell him a "Banana Box" full of food for $5. When Darold and Marilyn went to pick up the food they bought 10 boxes and Tin Can Pams donated 8 extra boxes. That is a great amount of food! Daystar was overjoyed.

That success gave Darold an inspired idea. If he could get some people to donate just $5 a month, he could buy a lot of boxes. They began asking for contributions but they quickly found that some people could not afford to donate $5 every month. So, instead of $5 they will take donations of any amount. Today many residents contribute money in various amounts, enough for the Longs to make a weekly trip to buy and deliver the food.

For many years the TR Church Special Ministries has had a Super Bowl Sunday event. Richard Hunt came up with the idea of "Souper Sunday" with two large boxes one labeled for each team. People would put a can of soup in the box for their favorite team. The boxes filled up quickly and this is another way to donate to Daystar Hope Center's Pantry.

Marilyn became aware of a great need for many other items besides food such as clothing, bedding and many common household items. For instance when people are self-sufficient enough to leave the Sunrise Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault Center, their bedding goes with them.

Sunrise asked for gift cards in December. It provides tutors who teach their recipients how to budget so that they can stretch their money and provide nutritious meals. It also publishes a monthly newsletter that lists the items most needed at that time.

After explaining to our residents about BOGO the Longs often find their porch loaded with bags of food and other items that stores sell as Buy-One-Get-One Free good deals.

People have donated toy trucks, cases of toothbrushes and toothpaste and household items of every description. Our TR Library has donated books.

MARILYN AND DAROLD LONG

The following paragraphs paraphrase two of their typical emails that pertain to their ministry.

Thank you for making the program such a success!

Because of TR's generosity we go every Thursday and take food to Daystar Hope Pantry. We take the food and your donations of clothing, appliances, utensils, toys, golf stuff, etc. to Daystar Hope Pantry and to their resale store in the same building. We then go to Tin Can Pams Discount Grocery Store and buy more food with the money you have donated. We were able to purchase more food at a discount of at least 40-45% off retail.

We also go to the Sunrise Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault Center's Administration Building. We take your bedding, baby items, books, cosmetics and your motel/cruise items. Please keep bringing us your "stuff" to lot 01-15. If we aren't here just leave it on the porch.

Darold has vetted both programs and found that Daystar's Thrift Shop and Solutions, the thrift store run by Sunrise, have only one paid employee. The rest of the workers are volunteers. Darold has also kept very careful and detailed records of all money donated.

The 18-inch Outreach Program and other Special Ministries projects have been extremely successful thanks to the generous support of TR residents.

Here is some additional background information about the Longs.

Marilyn and Darold Long owned and operated Country Woods RV Park in Franklin, N.C., for eleven years. Because the park was open from April 1 to Nov. 1 each year, the Longs spent their winter months traveling in warmer climates. They stayed in Branson for two summers as work campers and used the employee's discounts and free passes to see all of the shows and enjoy the fare at the restaurants. Darold figured that they saved more than $6000 in tickets by working there.

In 2003 they were on their way to Texas when they decided to stay overnight at TR. When Darold saw the golf course he asked Marilyn to agree to stay for two days. She agreed and then he went out and bought a week's worth of golf daily passes. They wound up staying the whole winter and are now year-round residents. As TR

Snowbirds they became active in many TR activities. Marilyn agreed to become Audrey Payne's assistant in the Church Association's Special Ministries. At that time there were just a few special events such as the Angel Tree at Christmas and fundraising for Daystar, Sunrise and Habitat.

Now, as year-round residents, Marilyn and Darold are in charge of the TR Church Association Special Ministries. They also run the summer Bocce program where they have done an excellent job of keeping the course in good shape. One of the special things they do is to keep everyone up-to-date by email about what is happening in our park. They keep us informed about activities and especially they tell us news about our residents, some of whom may need our prayers.

Marilyn and Darold exemplify the best of what we love about TR.

COFFEE SEMINAR

Florida Crime Prevention Task Force

by Al Gustafson

Brian MacNeel, designated Crime Prevention Practitioner, was the featured speaker at Tuesday's Coffee Seminar. An overflow crowd listened intently as he covered many of the crimes you and I can become victims of if we are not diligent in our daily lives. The list is endless.

Victims of theft, robbery, or burglary often take a "too little, too late" approach to crime prevention.

"Get a home alarm and get it before the fact," MacNeel said. "Do you know when 95 percent of people put burglar alarms in their house? Three days after they get robbed."

During his hour-long presentation, MacNeel outlined five of the most frequent crimes in the U.S. - identity theft, auto theft/burglary, home theft/burglary, muggings/purse snatchings and hotel/motel robbery - along with steps that can be taken to prevent them. If you missed it, this was an excellent program full of examples of crimes and products that can help us protect ourselves and our property from those crimes because, let's face it people, we are a little lax as we go about our daily activities.

The most popular crime in America is identity theft. MacNeel offered several tips for preventing this including refraining from giving out personal information over the phone, shredding all pre-approved credit card offers and any mail with your name or barcodes on it, including envelopes and checking your Credit Report once a year. Remove labels from medicine bottles before discarding. The latest scam is responding to a caller's questions during an unsolicited phone call - the caller records your voice and uses that recording to do business with your voice.

He had even more straightforward advice for anyone looking to prevent auto theft and burglaries. Lock up your cars! Seventy-five percent of auto burglaries in the U.S. involve vehicles with unlocked doors and/or open windows.

MacNeel shared statistics about home burglary, which is slated to pass auto theft and become the second most frequent crime in the country this year. A home was burglarized every 15 seconds in the U.S., and 38 percent of home burglaries in Florida involved unlocked doors and/or open windows.

Helping citizens be aware that crime is everywhere is the purpose of the group. It is important to be aware of all the threats and know how to protect yourself and your property. For unlimited discussions on this subject go to the Internet site: Crime Prevention Task Force. For information call 813-661-3700 or 352-777-1448. Brian's cell #813-531-0000. His email address is brianmacneel@gmail.com. He has a lot of literature he will send you just for the asking.

Be aware, be safe, be alive!

Good food, fun banter between upstate and downstate New Yorkers and a thought-provoking and tough trivia contest made for a great luncheon in Citrus West on Saturday, Feb. 4.

Richard Peebles broke the first place tie for the trivia contest, just beating out Frank Swanson. Gunny Gundrum came in third. Vince Smith moderated the quiz, ably controlling the sometimes loud and raucous group.

Many thanks to Joan Colao and Carol and Terry Mahone for organizing the luncheon and to Vince Smith for coming up with the fun entertainment.

Jane's World revisited: Happy Valentine's Day

by Jane Harrold

This story first appeared in February 2011.

Tonight at the Golden Anniversary celebration several TR couples will be honored for their 50th wedding anniversaries. Congratulations. Love is definitely in the air today and Tuesday is Valentine's Day. I decided to make Bill a list of possible gifts for his valentine in case he has not gone shopping yet. I have alphabetized the list and will make sure that he reads this column.

Card: According to me a valentine card is mandatory and should be mushy with a bright red envelope, big print for old eyes and some superlatives about how wonderful I am. The signature should include the word love and a reference to how darn lucky Bill is to have me. If the price of the card exceeds Bill's limited budget, he can just take me to the store and show me the fantastic card he would have purchased.

Chocolate: Chocolate is a universal choice for valentine giving. Chocolate is delicious, often comes in an attractive heart-shaped package, and of course, it is easily shared – definitely a gift that Bill and I can enjoy together.

Dinner: Candlelight, soft music and fine dining can really set the tone for a romantic valentine evening. Then again the early bird special is perfect for seniors. We can go out to eat and be home again in time for Wheel of Fortune and Bill can catch an after-dinner nap.

Flowers: Bill has very little experience in buying flowers for me. A dozen roses when each of our three children were born, an orchid corsage for our senior parent and one pot of chrysanthemums would just about be a complete list of flowers I have received. After 43 years I am not expecting a magnificent bouquet to arrive on Feb. 14. Special note to Bill: There is an ad for Bonita Flowers in this issue of The TR Times. I enjoy flowering plants like gloxinias or cyclamens, and if you are very lucky they will last until my birthday in March and that would really help your budget for my birthday.

Jewelry: Earrings, bracelets, necklaces or rings are super gifts. These often come in cute velvet boxes, have lots of sparkle and they are a lot easier to hide as a valentine surprise than, say, a shiny red convertible. Note to Bill: You really don't need to surprise me – any car will be perfect.

Lingerie: In a romantic valentine movie the blonde starlet wears a red, slinky and lace-trimmed outfit. In real life I could use a new nightgown – flannel, long-sleeved and floor-length. I think my slinky days are over, but red would be fine.

Other: Perhaps I should include a suggestion for ladies who want to buy something special for their valentine guy. See lingerie and ... I'm sure you get the idea.

In Jane's real world, the spirit of love and romance is alive and well. Bill is my valentine and there is no one I would rather be with on Feb. 14. He spoils me regularly and he knows the three magic words that all women love to hear, "Let's eat out."

Have a Happy Valentine's Day. Hug a loved one. Phone a friend. Pamper yourself.

Love is in the air.

DONALD HAROLD BRYAN

Donald Harold Bryan passed away suddenly at Bayfront Hospital on Sunday, Dec. 4, 2016, at the age of 84.

He was born Aug. 2, 1932, to Harold Thomas Bryan and the former Wilhelmine Scott on the family farm in Frankville, Ont., Canada, where he lived until he was 18.

Don attended the Frankville two-room school and then Athens Senior High School. On June 10, 1966, he married Betty Forsythe (nee Fader).

He worked first at Phillips Cables in Brockville and then at Automatic Electric. The second company was renamed Brock Telecom during his 44-year career; Don retired in 1997.

Don loved playing golf, tending his yards and woodcarving. Many of his beautiful duck carvings are now treasured keepsakes. He especially enjoyed his friends' fellowship. During his retirement, he worked as a security attendant at Black and Decker and McDougall's Waste Management.

He attended worship at Busch Hall and served as greeter and usher. Don enjoyed all programming provided in the park especially in-park talent. He assisted Doug Pedersen with set-up of chairs for programs and worked in the Snack Shack.

Don was a Parker and worked on the Propane Crew when bottles were picked up, filled and returned to resident lots. Don worked on the golf course weekly. He and Betty resided in RV South at lot 19-31.

Donnie will be dearly missed by Betty, his wife of 50 years. He is also survived by his sons: Harold (Glenda), Paul (Eileen), Gary (Jackie), Kent (Pam), Shawn and Steve (Carol). He was the proud "Grandpa Donnie" of eight grandchildren and thirteen great-grandchildren. He leaves in sorrow three sisters. He will be dearly missed by his friends in the Brockville area and at TR.

Don was predeceased by his parents and one brother.

The Celebration of Life and Funeral Service were held in the Chapel of Barclay Funeral Home on Wednesday, Dec. 14, at 1 p.m. Interment followed at Roselawn Memorial Gardens.

In memory of Donnie, donations to Leeds-Grenville SPCA or the charity of your choice would be gratefully acknowledged by the family. Messages of condolence may be made online at www.barclayfuneralhome.com.

A Celebration of Life for Donald Harold Bryan will be held at Travelers Rest in Citrus East on Sunday, Feb. 26, at 3 p.m. The Community is invited to attend.

MAX L. CARMICHAEL

Max L. Carmichael, age 87, passed peacefully on Dec. 24, 2016, in Bayfront Hospital, Dade City, Fla.

Born in Columbus, Ind., on Nov. 25, 1929, he attended Indiana University and served in the Army National Guard.

Max worked for North Central High School as the Audio Electronic Engineer and assisted in various sports programs for 33 years. He was a member of the Nora Lions Club.

Max retired in 1996 and he and his wife, Donna, moved to Florida where Max became involved in and devoted to their TR community. He volunteered and served on several committees and on the TR Board of Directors.

Max re-installed and operated the sound system for 17 years. He attended worship and served many years on the TR Church Association Board. For several years, Max represented TR at publicity tables at FMCA Brooksville Rallies and the Tampa RV Super Show. He was the Snack Shack Treasurer for many years. Max was the Veterans' Memorial Treasurer and during his last season, he worked with ice cream on Sunday nights. They resided at lot 2629 in The Village.

Max worked summers at the Indiana State Fair as campground host.

He was a second-generation member of the Wally Byam Caravan Club International (WBCCI). He served as the president of the Central Indiana Unit, in Region 5 and as president for WBCCI International. He held the International Rally in Essex Junction, Vt. in 2003.

For those who knew him, Max was never bored and never tired easily; he stayed active until he passed. He was devoted to his family and many friends.

Survivors include his wife Donna; three sons, Rick, Gary and Jeff; six grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

A Celebration of Life will be held on Saturday, Feb. 25, in Citrus East at 3 p.m. The TR community is invited to attend.

JANE TURNER

Jane Turner, 80, passed away Sept. 6, 2016, at her home in Spring Hill, Fla.

Jane was born to the late Mildred and Reginald Tewksbury on March 21, 1936. She graduated from Randolph High School and married her husband Richard "Ted" Turner, later that year on Oct. 10, 1954. They were married for 62 years.

Jane's life was interwoven with the store first owned by her parents, Tewksbury's Corner Store. She worked there with her father throughout high school and immediately after her marriage, while Ted served in the U.S. Army in Germany. Jane and Ted then lived in Connecticut for nine years, before returning to Randolph to raise their young children.

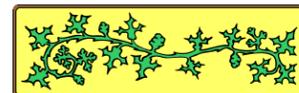

She later returned to Tewksbury's, then owned by her sister and brother-in-law, where she worked for ten years. After the sale of Tewksbury's, she worked until her retirement at the Gifford Hospital Auxiliary Thrift Shop. She was loved by those she worked with and the customers who became friends.

Family and friends meant the world to Jane. She and Ted loved to travel and spent many years camping with friends and touring the country in their Airstream trailer. They resided part-time in Florida in TR from 1997-2003.

After leaving TR, they moved to Spring Hill where Ted resides.

Additionally, she is survived by her son, Richard Turner (Marti); her daughter Sheryl Sypek (Rob); five grandchildren and one great grandchild. Ted, Sheryl and Marti cared for Jane at home until HPH Hospice was necessary for final care.

Private services at Vermont Veterans Cemetery were requested by Jane. Memorial donations may be made to HPH Hospice, Inc., 12107 Majestic Blvd., Hudson, FL 34667.

Card of Thanks

I want to express my thanks to Jean Cobb and the First Responders for their excellent care and service helping me with my problems and transit to the hospital several weeks ago.

Friends and neighbors here at TR were so helpful to Fran and us with transportation to and from the hospital. TR is a special community with wonderful friends and neighbors helping neighbors.

Russ Stearns

I can't express to you how overwhelmed Ron and I were with the parcel that arrived at our post office! Each card and treasure brought joy. What wonderful friends. "We'll tip a cup of kindness!" to all of you! Glad to read that some missed the haggis. As well as that parcel, a card full of signatures and thoughts arrived from the Tuesday morning golf course workers.

Ron was taken aback with the kind thoughts! We miss TR and our friends but are enjoying a Canadian winter (1st one in 18 years!). Keep the home fires burning....we hope to get down there if at all possible. Many, many thanks.

Joan and Ron McLean

Thank you so much for your support for the Sacred Heart Ham and Turkey Dinner on Sunday, Feb. 5. We hope to see you next year.
